Standing Assumptions and Conventions.

1. Standing Assumptions

- NO ARBITRAGE!
- Shares of stock and monetary amounts can be subdivided into arbitrary amounts for sale and purchase.
- There is one prevailing interest rate, the same for everyone and the same for both lending and borrowing.
- Everyone has an infinite line of credit.

2. Conventions

Unless explicitly stated otherwise:

- Stocks do not pay dividends.
- The purchase price for any asset is the same as the selling price, i.e., there is no bid-ask spread.
- There are no transaction costs.
- Options are European.
